First Friends Puppy

Item number 76071

The First Friends Puppy is a posable farm animal figure for young hands. The child turns the clicking head and moves the legs and tail, each with its own click, to pose the puppy sitting, standing or running. It is safe for teething and collectable, and it slots into pretend play with the First Friends farm animals, buildings and figures while prompting animal sounds and simple talk.

KEY FEATURES

-  Turning, clicking head
Head turns with a click the child can hear and feel.
-  Clicking legs and tail
Legs and tail move with a click into different poses.
-  Safe for teething
Made to be mouthed safely by younger children.
-  Collectable figure
Plays alongside the other animals and figures in the First Friends collection.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

-  Fine motor skills
Turning the head and posing the legs and tail works small hand movements.
-  Cause and effect
Each movement produces a click, linking the child's action to a result.
-  Imaginative play
A posable puppy invites role play with the First Friends farm animals and figures.
-  Language development
Barking together and naming the puppy's features builds sounds and vocabulary.
