First Friends Police Car

Item number 76087

The First Friends Police Car is a strong, free-wheeling vehicle that comes with its own Policeman figure. The child pushes the car along the floor and crawls or runs after it, then sits the Policeman or any other First Friend in the space at the back. The Policeman has a clicking head, arms and legs and a squeaking tummy, and is safe for teething.

KEY FEATURES

-  Free-wheeling car
Push it along the floor and chase after it.
-  Space for a passenger
Room at the back for the Policeman or any other First Friend.
-  Policeman included
Clicking head, arms and legs and a squeaking tummy.
-  Strong and durable
Built to withstand repeated pushing and crashing.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

-  Movement & gross motor
Pushing the car and crawling or running after it builds whole-body movement.
-  Imaginative play
Policeman and car together prompt rescue stories with other First Friends figures.
-  Language development
Talking about what police cars and police officers do builds vocabulary and questions.
-  Early numeracy
Counting the wheels and naming the colours as you play introduces early number talk.
