First Friends Firefighter

Item number 76097

A First Friends Firefighter figure for young children to hold, pose and talk about. The head, arms and legs click into different positions and the tummy squeaks when squeezed, rewarding every press with a sound. Children explore what moves and what makes a noise, then act out the firefighter's job, building vocabulary and imaginative stories with an adult or on their own.

KEY FEATURES

-  Squeaking tummy
Press the tummy and it squeaks, encouraging repeated cause-and-effect play.
-  Clicking joints
Head, arms and legs click through a variety of poses.
-  Safe for teething
Suitable for babies who mouth and chew their toys.
-  Collectable character
One firefighter figure to add to the First Friends world.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

-  Fine motor skills
Clicking each limb into position exercises small hand movements and grip.
-  Cause and effect
Squeezing the tummy produces a squeak the child learns to repeat.
-  Imaginative play
Children act out what a firefighter does and invent rescue scenarios.
-  Language development
Talking about the job and poses introduces words such as driving and sitting.
