First Friends Quad with Boy

Item number 76103

A pull-back Quad Bike with a First Friends Farm Boy at the wheel. Pull it back, release and it speeds across the floor, or push it along by hand. The farmer lifts out and sits back in, has a squeaking tummy and clicking head, arms and legs, and his hat turns for different looks. Children chase, retrieve and race it, adding engine sounds and farm stories.

KEY FEATURES

-  Pull-back action
Pull back, release and the Quad Bike races across the floor.
-  Free wheeling
Can also be pushed along by hand at the child's own pace.
-  Farm Boy included
Squeaking tummy, clicking head, arms and legs; safe for teething.
-  Moveable hat
The farmer's hat turns around for different looks.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

-  Cause and effect
Pulling back and releasing shows how a stored action makes the quad move.
-  Movement & gross motor
Children crawl and run after the quad to retrieve it.
-  Hand-eye coordination
Seating the farmer and aiming the quad guides careful hand control.
-  Language development
Talking about wheels, headlights and horn builds vehicle vocabulary.
