Musical Jack in the Box

Item number 76110

A classic Jack in the Box with extra activities. Toddlers from twelve months wind the easy, smooth handle to play This Old Man until the clown pops up. Around the box are a baby-safe mirror, a star-shaped clicker, a yellow squeezer and an easy-grip handle. The song gives parents a way to sing along, name body parts and count to ten together.

KEY FEATURES

-  Pop-up clown
Wind the handle and the clown pops up.
-  Plays This Old Man
Winding plays the tune for singing along.
-  Mirror and clicker
Baby-safe mirror and star-shaped clicker on the sides.
-  Squeezer and handle
Yellow squeezer and an easy-grip carry handle.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

-  Cause and effect
Winding plays the tune and eventually makes the clown pop up.
-  Sound & rhythm
The wound melody invites singing and keeping time.
-  Early numeracy
The lyrics of This Old Man support counting to ten.
-  Fine motor skills
Winding, clicking the star and pressing the squeezer practise hand control.
