Baby's Musical Radio

Item number 76122

Baby's Musical Radio is a wind-up musical toy that straps to a cot, stroller or playpen. An adult winds the easy movement and switches it on; the melody plays and the picture screen moves, with animals and clowns to watch on both front and back. The baby presses the large yellow squaker, and from six months learns to work the squaker and on/off switch alone.

KEY FEATURES

- Wind-up melody
Easy wind movement plays a tune with an on/off switch.
- Moving screen
Pictures move across the screen as the melody plays.
- Large yellow squaker
Press it for a squeak the baby can make alone.
- Double sided
A second screen on the back; strap attaches to cot or stroller.

LEARNING & DEVELOPMENT

- Cause and effect
Pressing the squaker and flicking the switch each give an immediate response.
- Sound & rhythm
A wound melody introduces music while the pictures move in time.
- Sensory exploration
Moving pictures on both sides give the baby something to watch and touch.
- Language development
Adults name the animals and clowns as they pass across the screen.
